

RELATIONS WITH PARENT ORGANIZATIONS

The Board recognizes that parent-teacher organizations are a source of interest in the public schools. The District looks to the parent organization as a means of promoting a finer educational program by achieving better understanding among the pupils, the parents, the teachers and administrators. The District will encourage the maintenance of an enthusiastic and industrious parent organization.

The Board recognizes the parent organization as an organization of cooperation among parents, teachers, and administrators in the promotion of a sound program of education.
